BUNCO ARTISTS CAUGHT ON ROOF.

Break Down and Confess to Fleecing of Oil Man.

Got Fifteen Hundred From Him in Pool Game.

Large Sum Recovered by San Francisco Police.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Trapped on the roof of his apartment house at Geary and Madison streets, at 4:20 o'clock this morning, the three bunco men who had been seen at the residence of Frank R. Van Sickle, an oil man, Taft, Kern county, into a pool game Saturday and fled from the scene, were captured. From two of the men, $1500 in currency was recovered after severe questioning by the police. The prisoners broke down and admitted their guilt.

The fleeing of Van Sickle was a planned affair. Steel, Alvin Leonard, acted as the "steerer" and met all men at Third and Market streets and proposed to show him about town. From Leavenworth and the streets the men went to a saloon on Third street, where the "steerer" was for the proprietor. Thompson Williams were there, and Thompson was introduced as the proprietor. The game was proposed, and Van Sickle was allowed to win. The game was to be fifteen points, $50 a ball, amounting to $1500. Van Sickle won and the men fled. Van Sickle was asked of Van Sickle by the police.

THEY GOT MONEY IN THE BANK TO THAT.

The trio of bunco men declared they would not pay him unless he could show them he had the money in cash.

Accompanied by Leonard, Van Sickle went to a bank and drew $1500 and brought the money to the saloon. He asked the man if he had the money and Thompson agreed to go with Van Sickle and draw the money out of his bank.

THE TWO MEN WALKED DOWN EDDY STREET AND AT MASON STREET THOMPSON SAID:

"You had better go back and get your money. I don't know those fellows and they might steal it. You go back and I will be back in thirty minutes with the coin."

Van Sickle hurried back to the saloon, but the two men, likewise the money, had disappeared.

THEY HAD HER JOB BACK.

Member of the San Francisco Postmaster's Office was only to be traced.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Mattie Fitzgerald, member of the San Francisco postmaster's office, was removed from her position and appealed to the postmaster.

She also to the Civil Service Commission in Washington to investigate her case. She says that her removal was due to unjust discrimination in the practice of using "dead" names long obtained in her division.

Admitted having used such magazines as the practice was open and any attempt at concealment.

The investigation was conducted in an unfair and improper manner, and the statement made to Postmaster Fick that he had called upon the inspectors to trace the names was contradicted by the Assistant Postmaster.

At her protest to Postmaster-General Blackwell, Miss Fitzgerald calls his attention to the fact that during her years in the service her record was one of highest efficiency.

Mrs. Mary J. Johnston, the other member who was dismissed, has also appealed to the Civil Service Commission and the Postmaster-General to investigate her case.

PORTLAND (Or.) April 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] James Ross, who was lost in the wilds of Eastern Idaho last week, cooked his buckskin gloves and ate them, finding that they were most repulsive, blew out his life.

James Young and the other party-stewed gloves on a tree in the mountains. Believing he was a mountain peak in the distance, he proceeded to walk in that direction. Young descended and the party found him. Young found his life in the hands of K. M. Musgrave, who was found by Musgrave and returned.

Twenty miles from the point where two hunters parted the body was found by Musgrave and returned.

Count Benckendorff is expected to leave for Moscow today. He will visit four more cities and then return to Moscow.

San Francisco Judge Says He Has Not the Heart to Condemn Victim of Nerveless.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] On the ground that nerveless caused her at times to do things for which she was not responsible, Police Judge Treadwell dismissed the charge of petty larceny against Mrs. Gertrude Livingston Lansing, prominent in society and the possessor of a beautiful home at No. 2844 Sycamore street.

engineer, who resides in the Golden West Hotel, was arrested last evening on the complaint of Mrs. A. Allen, whose husband is connected with the Sunset Magazine. Witt denied his guilt. He was released on $100 bail, being instructed to appear in police court tomorrow morning to answer to an accusation of malicious mischief.

Mrs. Allen's story is that she was coming down town on a Powell street car shortly before 6 o'clock last evening, and that a man later identified as Witt, was seated next her. She felt a tug at her skirt, which was lifted slightly, and examination showed that the garment had been cut in several places.

The young son of Mrs. Allen was with her, and when the car arrived at Market and Powell streets she sent the lad to the press club, where she knew her husband to be, and he joined her immediately.

"HURRAH FOR THE JUDGE."

San Francisco Court Who Sentenced Johnson for Speeding Congratulated from All Quarters of the Globe.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Postmarked from offices in every part of the United States, with an occasional foreign stamp to vary the monotony, a stream of letters is flowing into the hands of Judge A. B. Treadwell, all bearing exultant, laudatory notes of congratulation for sentencing John Arthur Johnson to serve twenty-five days in the county jail for repeated violations of the speed laws, indicating that in many quarters of the globe there are persons who take very seriously the defeat of Jeffries in Reno, with its supposed reflection on the entire white race.

Judge Treadwell is enjoying the plaudits of the multitude and the commendation of not a few prospective "hopeys," and as he peruses each letter he shakes his head and falls back on a not original phrase, "I seem my duty and I do it."

New York and Southern California, Winnipeg and New Orleans, even Peking, China, all these have contributed to the increasing piles of letters from fight fans and clergymen, business men and even women.

ISSUES ORDER TO MOVE ON.

SAN JOSE CHIEF INTENDS TO CLEAN MARKET STREET.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN JOSE (Cal.) April 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a narrow section of the outskirts of the business section, Chief of Police Kildner is concentrating the tendorion of San Jose, having just issued an edict that Market street, the widest thoroughfare in the city, shall be entirely cleared of the vicious elements that has made it a street to be avoided, when it is really the logical center of town.

Chief Kildner has notified certain tenants of Market street and Post street property that they must leave within thirty days. He has told them whether they may move, but tonight refused to admit that they will be persecuted. He said he had received many anonymous letters urging him to condemn Mrs. Lansing, but he could not find it in his heart to do this because he did not feel that she was responsible.

Turning to the defendant, who was weeping, he said: "Madam, I am sorry that this accusation has been brought against you. It is the order of this court that you are acquitted of this offense."

Mrs. Lansing partly withdrew her veil, revealing her features, which were seen to be distorted with grief. She said in a voice that could be heard no farther than the judge's chair: "I thank you with all my heart."

ROUNDING UP LABORERS.

Agents of the Canneries Are Taking No Chances on the Men Jumping Ship.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The labor agents who have been rounding up men for work in the Alaska canneries are taking no chances with the hands, and heavy guards of watchmen are keeping their eyes on the packers where the men have been placed. Most of the men are given a small advance, and if they see the opportunity would not hesitate to jump ship. At the Howard street wharf, the packet George Curtis, of the North Alaska Salmon Company, is awaiting orders to go to sea. The cannery hands were being quartered aboard yesterday, and the dock presented a scene of activity, with the busy labor bosses bringing down their employed watchmen patrolling the wharf, swinging ominous looking sticks.

The Alaska packet ship Tacoma got away yesterday for Bristol Bay, she carried about 300 cannery hands, many of them Mexicans and Spaniards, with a few of the Filipinos who arrived Thursday on the Kona. She was before the Tacoma weighed anchor and headed for sea a number of the cannery hands clustered at the rail and pleaded to a launch man taking them ashore. They offered to pay him $5 apiece.

Man Drives Auto Over an Embankment Near Walla Walla and Four Persons Are Terribly Injured.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WALLA WALLA (Wash.) April 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] His eyes blinded by a brief but terrific dust storm that swept the valley this afternoon, John Webb drove his big touring car over a bank and into a fence where the car turned turtle and the occupants were thrown out, all of them being hurt.

The injured are John Webb, three ribs broken, internally injured; Mrs. Webb, badly bruised and shaken, internally injured; Ava Schell, internally injured.

An Ingenious Savings Plan

One of our Depositors recently sent us a really remarkable plan for saving. Here it is:

"When my week's mending is finished, I save from my house-keeping money 5c for each pair of stockings mended, 1c for each button replaced, 1c for each rip sewed up and 5c for any other article mended. Though there is no certain amount saved each week, it averages about 40c. This may not seem much to save but in a year's time amounts to a neat little sum."

If you want to save successfully, you must have a plan. Figure out YOUR plan now, and open an account with us today. 4 per cent. interest, compounded semi-annually paid on Savings Deposits of $1.00 or more.

CANDIDATES FOR THE MAYORALTY ARE LOOMING IN SAN FRANCISCO.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The discussion of candidates for municipal offices is on with indications that the campaign will be opened much earlier than at first intended. It had been the purpose of the Municipal Conference of 1911 and other civic organizations engaged in legal politics to announce their choice of candidates about next July, believing that ample time would then remain for making the canvass for the September primary. But so large a number of candidates have presented their claims that it has been deemed advisable to make known a choice before they all become committed to their canvasses to an extent that will prevent their withdrawal in favor of a preferred candidate.

Charles F. Curry, former Secretary of State and now a building and loan commissioner, is a several times announced candidate for Mayor. Francis V. Keenling, a lawyer, and who ran for Lieutenant-Governor last year, is also seeking the nomination for Mayor. Byron Maize, who was the primary candidate of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League in the last municipal campaign, is again in the field.

H. McCandless, the incumbent, is the candidate of the Union Labor party for re-election. William McDevitt is a candidate of the Socialists, who believes that they are gaining strength in this city, and claim that they will displace the radical pro-socialist of all parties in the current campaign.

Dr. T. B. W. Leland is being urged for the Democratic nomination for Mayor, but may decide to try conclusions with Dr. William J. Walsh, the incumbent Coroner, for the latter office.

ous; Meta Pickard, leg broken, neck wrenched. The car was being driven by Webb who was the victim of a storm suddenly swept down the valley, making it almost impossible for him to see. He immediately shut off his power and applied his brake, but the car was near a turn and shot off on a curve over an embankment.

Mrs. Webb is a wealthy rancher living in the suburbs of the city. Miss Pickard is Mrs. Webb's daughter. Ava Schell, daughter of L. C. Schell of the city, was accompanying Miss Pickard.

At first it was believed Mr. Webb and Miss Schell were fatally injured, but physicians tonight said both will survive.

KILLED BY THIRD RAIL.

Sacramento Man Was Curious to Know the Details of Operating Big Traction Cars.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SACRAMENTO, April 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Curiosity over the difference between third rail service of the Central California Traction Company and the Northern Electric competing lines caused the quick death this afternoon of William J. Eyer, a joiner, who touched the charged rail of the Traction line in Wilton station, five miles from this city.

Gasping, "I got it this time," he lapsed into unconsciousness and died within a few minutes.

William Kemnitz and his son, who were with Eyer, were badly shocked in an attempt to drag him off the rail. The men are looking for a site for picnic grounds for the Brotherhood Carpenters and Joiners, of which Eyer was a member.

FEDERAL JUDGE ARRIVES.

First Session of United States Court in History of Sacramento Will Begin Today.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SACRAMENTO, April 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In accordance with a law passed by Congress a year ago W. C. Van Fleet, the Federal Judge of San Francisco, will hold a session of the United States District Court in Sacramento, beginning Monday and continuing throughout the week. This will be the first time in the history of the State that the Federal Court has been in session here.

Judge Van Fleet arrived from San Francisco yesterday and made arrangements to use the courtroom for the Third District Court of Appeals. Inasmuch as this is the first session the calendar will be brief. Most of the actions are of a civil nature, there being but one criminal case.

SAN DIEGO, April 9.—[Exclusive

shouted Juan Gonzales, a drunken sailor

from the schooner Jennie Thelin on the

"Shout that again and I will kill

The most perfect musical instrument the world has ever known.

The Victor-Victrola possesses all the virtues of the famous Victor, but has improved sound-amplifying surfaces instead of a horn and all moving parts are entirely concealed.

Like the Victor "it plays itself", nothing being left to uncertain skill—therefore an artistic rendition is always a certainty.

It brings to you the world's best music, sung and played by the foremost artists, and delivered in a sweet, pure, mellow tone that is absolute perfection.

Stop in any store where you see the famous Victor trademark and ask to hear the Victor-Victrola. You'll be astonished and wonder why you have waited so long.

Fast Foreign Fiat Wins the Twenty-four Hour Race

WORLD'S RECORDS BROKEN ON MOTORDROME BOARDS.

Cadillac Finishes Second to Speed King Racer and Cole 30 is Third in Grueling Speed Contest on Slippery Pie Pan Where Drivers Risk Their Lives But Elude Death by Many Hairbreadth Escapes.

BY R. A. WYNNE.

THE Fiat "Forty-five" easily won the great twenty-four hour race at the Motordrome yesterday. It was driven by Valentine Hush and Frank Verbeck, alternating.

The car traveled 1491 miles in the finish flag in his hand. It was five minutes before the end of the twenty-four hours and as the great speed monsters plunged by, the drivers, with drawn and grimy faces looked eagerly at the extended fingers of Hempel

Vernon, 5; Portland, 5. Morning game, called end of ninth inning.

Vernon, 5; Portland, 1. Afternoon

game.

It was a fine rosy-cheeked morning yesterday for a bloody murder in the local baseball line and about the only reason one can give for not having from one to three, was that every California ball player in Southern California was too mad to carry out an dead bodies.

Twenty-nine hits, including a home run; seven errors, six pitchers and three catchers used; three innings which there were four runs and five hits made; Portland hammering four runs in the ninth inning and the when victory was in sight. Vernon tearing right back with three runs in the ninth and tying the score.

Can you beat this for variety and you think you can, just imagine the after the score was tied at 3 to 3, at the end of the ninth inning and the game was called from sheer exhaustion, both Hap Hogg and McCred-

"cussed" their luck for not winning the game.

None of the Vernons thought the were going to get a lot of duck soup

so soon after breakfast yesterday morning. McCredie stuck in young Fullerton to wait on the table. After noon as this one began to bring the things the Vernons started to simple around the room and he hadn't made half the round of the table before he had to yell out to the kitchen for help.

He managed to fan Ross, the first one he reached at the head of the table, but the next four in line took punch at him and he soaked the sixth one in the back.

About this time he began to cry and McCredie hurriedly withdrew him

DEAD WORDS INSPIRE DEATH PACT AND TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

Woman's Taunt Believed the Starting Point of Tragic Happenings From Which One Is Dead and Two Others Lie on Threshold of Eternity—Both Eva Bovee and Dania Admit Agreement to Die Together.

A DEATH pact born of fanaticism and first manifested in the killing of his little daughter, Ledenia, is believed to have been the cause of S. L. Dania shooting pretty Eva Bovee and making an attempt upon his own life in the County Hospital late Saturday night.

Ledenia is dead, her father and Miss Bovee now bear three bullet wounds in each of their bodies and they are slowly sinking into a comatose condition which the surgeons at the hospital say retards death. When it comes three lives will have been sacrificed to a woman's idle words. On passing Dania's father shop a week ago, the woman, Mrs. George Koerner, remarked: "There is the man who beat his wife." With its utterance began a tragedy that terday morning. One tells of the trouble with Koerner. In the others his mind appears to ramble and he discourses inanely upon the after world. His statement about the shooting of April 1 does not include any reference to his act of shooting Ledenia. He says: "The man who shot me on his way up the hill to the house where he lived stopped in front of my window and commenced to leer at me in a most terrifying manner. When I attempted to go out Mr. Wildes held me back and would not permit me, saying as he did so, "Pay no attention to a drunken lout who has been in his room. When the man returned he commenced to attack me again, stopping in front of my window and 200 yards away there and I went out. He struck me on the head with something, his wife grabbed me by the shoulders, from behind and pulled me to the sidewalk, where he kicked me in the stomach. I had no revolver at the time. In a dazed condition I went back into the house, got my gun and went out again but did not fire."

Eva Bovee
Ledenia Dania

(Signed) S. L. Dania.
The woman was questioned about the pact and she said, "I promised father I would get him out of this unjust position if he would take me along with him and the little babe, too. I knew, grandma would soon follow. I have had to beg father to keep his promises to take me, too. I realize now that father was insane at the time he took Ledenia. But he is not now and I have to remind him of his promise constantly. He wants to go, but thinks it is cruel to take me and at the same time does not want to leave me."

(Signed) EVA BOVEE.
The Mr. Wildes to whom Dania refers in his statement is a customer who was in the shop when Koerner first walked by. He left before the latter passed with his wife at the time of the woman's remark which started the trouble.

Miss Bovee bought the gun at a store on Main street. She did not remember which one. She said she was accompanied to the store by an old friend of hers, a man named D. Young to whom she said she wanted the weapon for self-protection. She then took it to the County Hospital and gave it to Dania with the request that he remember the compact and shoot her.

None save the pair themselves were witnesses to the shooting. Believing their explanation can be accepted of one of the strangest tragedies that looms upon the annals of crime. At the hospital it is asserted that the opportunity given them for their desperate attempt was by the merest chance.

TELLS HIM TO SHOOT.
FACES DEATH UNFLINCHING.
Behind the shooting of Dania and Eva Bovee lies a tangle of broken threads. But from the mass of contradictions there stands out the unquiet, red courage, fanatic or womanish, of the fair-haired little woman, aged of twenty, who, unflinchingly, urged Dania to fire bullet after bullet into her frail body until she finally fell unconscious on the floor.

The real story of the tragedy in all its detail may never be told. The principals are too seriously injured to say more than a word or two now and then. But what is believed to be an accurate narrative of the occurrence was reconstructed yesterday, based upon circumstantial evidence and statements made by the man and women to the police and to Superintendent Charles H. Whitman, of the County Hospital.

There is now no question among the authorities that the revolver was placed in the man's hands by the woman, who told him to shoot her. Dania could but rise to a sitting posture. From this recumbent position, he raised the weapon and aimed it at the woman's head. He fired, and the bullet found its mark, hitting her in the neck.

Partially stunned by the impact of the bullet which ranged along the scalp, Miss Bovee dumbly watched Dania and the effect of the wound he inflicted. As the blood spouted and he had not been fatally wounded, she pleaded with him to finish the job while strength was left.

Dania summoned up his fast fading strength and fired again and yet again at the human target standing at his bedside. The old man's hand wavered as he aimed the revolver at the girl, and as the bullets failed to reach a vital spot, he became frenzied with fear lest he would sink back unconscious from loss of blood and fail to take her life.

"Aim at the heart," she cried, waving on her feet, but clutching the bed to keep steady for the marksman.

Once she threw out her right hand in despair for the wrist is pierced. It is thought that this was the last bullet the revolver contained as accounted for one which lodged in his throat, three in the woman's body, one that grazed her scalp and the wound in the right wrist. The entrance of Dr. Thomas, who was attracted by the sound of firing, followed close to the echo of the first shot, but quick as he was, six shots had been fired before he reached Dania's bed.

Yesterday, Mrs. May Stevens of No. 1534 East Forty-sixth street, called at the County Hospital to see her wounded sister. The latter roused herself and simply stated that she cared little whether she got well or died. Simply and quietly she told her sister that she was glad to see her. She made no explanation of the mad act. "I know nothing of what may have brought all this about," said Mrs. Stevens. "My sister had been working for this Dania and I hope now he dies for over a year. He had a small clothes-preserving establishment and was doing a good business from him and living at his home, taking care of his children. I know nothing of his family or his affairs. About two months ago my sister obtained housework in another part of the city. She worked in the daytime and continued to live at home. She was not a religious fanatic and I know nothing of any compact to die that may have existed between them."

Both of Miss Bovee's parents are dead. For a time she lived with her mother's parents. Upon their death she went to the home of her other grandfather, Henry Bovee of No. 1250 Court street, and also left there to go to Dania's house.

RADIANCE OF PALM SUNDAY.

Exquisite Greenery Decorates Houses of Worship.

Hundreds of the Devout Find Solace in Music.

Holy Week to Be Observed by Special Programmes.

Palm Sunday's observance in Los Angeles yesterday was incomparably beautiful. In eastern temples on this day branches of cedar and spray of boxwood are substituted in the blessing and distribution of palms; but in Los Angeles the nature of an exotic spring, full of palms interlaced in every doorway, and there is a palm branch for every aspiring thought ascending from its cathedrals.

Palm Sunday finds the avenues of many eastern cities deep in snow, but Los Angeles greets Palm Sunday with the vernal radiance of an exotic spring. Not the Vatican itself could hope to excel the exquisite greenery, which festooned the canals of St. Vibiana's Cathedral at Second and Main street, or that carpeted its stately aisles.

Hundreds of the devout observed the day in local Catholic and Episcopal churches, at morning services. In the afternoon between 5,000 and 6,000 persons enjoyed their Sabbath holiday upon the nearby beaches. Late in the afternoon the three beach lines resorted to the home of her other grandfather, Henry Bovee of No. 1250 Court street, and also left there to go to Dania's house.

BEAUTIFUL SERVICE.
Bishop Conaty officiated at the blessing of the palms in St. Vibiana's Cathedral yesterday morning. He was assisted by Monsignor Harrett, Rev. Brady and Rev. Marmon. Distribution of the palms and the procession followed the blessing.

At St. John's Episcopal Church, Wednesday evening, this service was observed at 11 o'clock by Bishop Johnson, who administered the rite of confirmation to a large class of men and women. At 8 o'clock the choir sang "The Crucifixion" by Dean William MacCormack occupied the pulpit at St. Paul's Pro-cathedral at the morning service, and in the evening the choir sang "The Crucifixion" by Dubois. Dean MacCormack suggested to his congregation that a fitting celebration of Easter Sunday be held at the Cathedral of the Angels, a magnificent instrument has recently been placed in the Cathedral at a cost of $4,000, and of this amount only $600 has been paid.

Palm Sunday introduces the most strictly observed octave of the Christian year. It is the day when the memory of the triumph of the Catholic and Episcopal churches in the city. The Brotherhood of St. Andrews has arranged services for today, tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday, at St. John's Pro-cathedral, the speakers being Rev. Lewis G. Morris, Bishop Johnson, Rev. Leslie E. Learned and Dean MacCormack, respectively. These services will begin at 12:15 o'clock and occupy thirty minutes.

Services will be held Good Friday, at 9 a.m., 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. The stations of the cross, thirty-one in number, will be held at the service Easter Sunday morning, pontifical mass will be celebrated and the papal benediction.

WARY OF THE X-RAY.
Because of the frequent use to which the X-ray apparatus in the Receiving Hospital is put and the detrimental effect of the rays, it is planned to secure heavy zinc or lead shields to be used about the apparatus when in use. It has been shown, much to the expense of other physicians, that frequent use of the unshielded X-ray results in cancer and other serious maladies from which the victims rarely, if ever, recover.

WHERE ARE THESE BOYS?

Texan Lad and Angeleno Disappear from Homes of Relatives and Cannot Be Found.

The police have been asked to search for two boys who recently left their homes to strike out in the world for themselves. Harold Jemier, 16 years old, left the home of his brother, Frank Jemier, No. 414 East Forty-seventh street, last Tuesday, saying that he was going to do something for himself. When he left he wore a green coat, corduroy trousers, blue shirt and a cap. He has blue eyes, a long, thin face, a pointed chin, is about five feet tall and weighs a little over a hundred pounds.

Clayde Jones, 14 years old, disappeared from his home in San Antonio, Tex., about a week ago and is believed to be in Los Angeles. He has dark blue eyes, heavy eyelashes and wore a gray suit and brown hat.

Legal End.

SEEKS ADVICE IN BOND ISSUE.

APPOINTMENT OF LAWYER WILL BE RECOMMENDED.

School Board to Be Asked to Appoint Deputy City Attorney as Counsel to Guide It in Preliminary Work to Obtain Big Bond Issue for School Purposes.

The appointment of Atty. Emmet H. Wilson as legal advisor of the Board of Education during its coming activity to secure a bond issue of $1,720,000, will be recommended at its meeting tonight by H. W. Frank, Chairman of the Finance Committee.

As the board gave the committee discretionary power in the matter at its last regular meeting, there is small likelihood that the plan will fail to be approved.

Wilson's compensation will be $350 for the services rendered the common school issue, and $150 for the High School issue. The money raised by the bonds, $500,000 is designed for High school needs, and $1,200,000 for the improvement of common school facilities.

"We need expert advice, the very best obtainable," said Chairman Frank last night. "This we might obtain from the city and district attorneys, but these officials are so overworked that to add to their duties the labor of managing a large school system would be an imposition. Mr. Wilson has been a member of the Board of Education, as well as Deputy City Attorney, and he knows all about school law."

"We are planning to have him with us at every meeting where the bonds are discussed, and he will supervise every step of the plan. The slightest error in the resolution and the other necessary transactions might effect the legality of the issue. We are not going to have that questioned, a purely business matter. I think we can call the election some time in June. The funds realized will be limited by the bonds will take care of the city's school growth for five years to come, at least."

GOLD FIND EXCITES BRAWLEY.

Man Hauling Sand for Sidewalks Idly Tests Sand and Finds It Rich in Ore.

BRAWLEY (Cal.) April 9.—Prospectors are returning from the scene of the placer gold strike, fifteen miles east of this city, with black gravel richly impregnated with coarse gold. The find was made on the ancient beach, which is believed to be a relic of prehistoric times when the Great California extended inland and included the Salton Sea. This beach is today fifty feet above sea level, and for miles its sands are found to carry gold in paying quantities.

The discovery was made through accident. Gravel was being hauled for cement sidewalks in Brawley, and there being no team near the city, an enterprising teamster undertook to haul it from the old beach. Idly testing some of this gravel with a miner's pan, it was found to carry gold in considerable quantity. A rush immediately ensued and the entire beach has been staked out from near Imperial Junction almost to the Mexican line, thirty-five miles south.

Through the beach line being six miles from the nearest water, it will be necessary to drill wells before extensive development work can be done. The gold bearing gravel appears to vary, but the richest finds so far have been made by Jack Fogarty, a former Klondike miner, who discovered black sand, similar to that at Nome, within three feet of the surface. This sand contains gold equal to a value of $100 to a yard of dirt.

IN THE CHURCH

BISHOP CONATY.

THE SOCIETY OF THE HOLY NAME.

THE GOOD TO FOLLOW IT.

THE first public demonstration of the Society of the Holy Name of Jesus in Los Angeles was held last evening. Over one thousand men were present. The sermon was preached by Bishop Conaty on "Praise the Lord and Exalt Him: Praise ye the name of the Lord."

"The purpose of this Society is to honor the holy name of God by public profession of reverence and respect and also to make reparation for the crimes committed by men against the name of God which is holy and terrible. God's name demands our homage and veneration for it is the name of our Creator and Redeemer. God has always commanded reverence for His name and has justly guarded its sacred character. Time and again in His revelation to men He has reminded them that they must not profane His holy name, nor shall they swear falsely by it, nor profane the name of the Lord."

"It seems incredible that men should outrage the name of God by their irreverence, their profanity, and their blasphemy. It seems almost to our humanity that there are men who do not know the name of God means nothing; to whom the name of Jesus brings no knowledge or thought. It is still worse to know that there are men who have the name of God, who would drive it out of the human mind and blot it out of the language. This is the worst of all outrages in the eyes of God. It is the blasphemy of many who profess belief in God and in Christ and who build their life in eternity upon salvation through the Holy Name. They have caught the contagion of the age which is the contempt for authority, contempt for the name of God. It is irreverence toward the name of God. It means that men do not understand how anyone who calls the name of Jesus Christ for mercy, who prays to Him daily should so far forget His faith as to fall into the hands of those who are ignorant of religion or hostile to it."

"Around the holy name of Jesus cluster all there is of faith and holiness in our life. He is our Savior and our brother, the master of our salvation, the Good Samaritan of our lives. He said the reasons for our iniquities and all men who have been reconciled to us with our God, who would drive it out of the human mind and blot it out of the language. This is the worst of all outrages in the eyes of God. It is the blasphemy of many who profess belief in God and in Christ and who build their life in eternity upon salvation through the Holy Name. ## majority.

Congress heard the voice ## of the people during this recent ## agitation and passed a law that all ## employees should receive compensa## tion for work done on Sunday.

This embodied the Postmaster-Gen## eral's notable order concerning

Sunday closing of the postoffice.

The postoffice employees in Los An## geles and the United States are among ## our most honored citizens. They ## must be men of fidelity, industry,

sobriety, character and absolute ## reliability in order to attain to their ## highest ideals and of patriotism, they ## are home builders. It was most in## consistent that the government should ## require that they possess all these Christian

virtues in a marked degree, and then com## pel them to violate the sacred obliga## tion of the one rest and worship and ## honor day when all these ideals are ## especially emphasized.

A man cannot keep himself faith## ful to all of his duties and keep him## self unblemished in a world of tempta## tion and avarice and selfishness and ## covetousness, and defy and ignore that ## law of God which says: "Remember the ## Sabbath day to keep it holy."

Let us, then, out of this tremendous ## victory learn that whatever ought to ## be done, and as good men, and as ## true and honest, and as good men,

and nobly discharge their duties to God

and humanity they are hastening the ## will of God when all wrongs will be ## righted.

DR. CARTER.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

INDIFFERENCE GOODNESS, TAKING NO

ACTIVE PART IN WORLD WORK.

IS NOT GOODNESS AT ALL.

A "Strange Curse" was the theme ## of the sermon at the First Methodist

Church, by Dr. C. M. Carter, last ## evening. This curse had reference to ## the one pronounced upon Meroz, when ## the angel of the Lord said: "Curse ye ## bitterly the inhabitants thereof, be## cause they came not to the help of the ## Lord, the help of the Lord against the ## mighty." He said in part:

"The most striking thing was the ## reason for this curse. The people of ## Meroz had done nothing, and singularly ## enough they were cursed for doing

nothing. They had done no

wrong, but in time of need had refused ## to help their brethren.

"This illustrates the work of saving ## souls. Indifference is one of the great ## evils of men. This is the time of bat## tle. This is the time when the best in ## man is called out. Sin abounds on ## every side and the man who is in## different to the call of the world for ## could not exist otherwise. These lives ## are in touch with reality. That is,

God. That is what is meant when it ## is said that Christianity reconciles

man to God. It lifts him from a life

of material aims, selfishness and com## placency into accord with the soul of ## things. The Bible says: "But if there ## is but one great thing in the Bible

namely, Jesus Christ, was urged as ## conclusive proof that nothing else

was required for salvation. It is the ## explanation of satisfaction that it

all He undertook has been accom## plished."

"It carries us back to the time when

He was twelve years of age and stand## ing before the learned doctors in the ## Temple, said to His father who sought

Him, 'Why wastest thou that I must be ## about My Father's business?' Jesus Christ

had been sent upon the greatest mis## sion that had ever been had for the world.

He had come, and all the history of ## past ages centered in Him and was ## consummated in His life, His death and

His resurrection. All of the Old Testa## ment sacrifices and prophecies were ## understood and fulfilled. On Calvary ## is gathered up the meaning of all the ## past. Men who were conscious of sin

had sought forgiveness and peace; they ## were searching after God; and now

the mists have lifted, the clouds have ## rolled away, and the Cross marks the ## path back to peace with God. Christ

had come to do the will of His father ## and to die to save a world. The su## preme purpose of life was now com## pleted. As He looks back upon it He ## has nothing to regret, not one thing to ## change, not one item left undone, and ## with a shout of triumph He declares:

'It is finished.'

Ready-to-Wear Apparel of Character

Over and again have women assured us of the noticeable beauty of our lines of spring garments. Even the least expensive have touches of individuality, features that instantly lift them from the commonplace:

AND IN THE HIGHER PRICED GARMENTS, where we have but one or two of a style, novel effects are shown in profusion. Prominent among favored features this season are veiled effects in gowns; the new reversible coats, and skirts, too; the new coats with empire backs, which conform more closely to the figure than styles heretofore shown—dozens of little touches, which, though in themselves inconspicuous and unobtrusive, add the effect of originality to each garment shown.

EVERY EXPRESS sees new garments added; and women who contemplate purchases for Easter are urged to make selection today, if possible.

Annual Encampment of Civil War Veterans.

Arrangements Made to Care for Two Thousand.

Parade Wednesday to Be a Feature of Meeting.

FRESNO, April 9.—The annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic of California and Nevada will be held in this city next week, the session being Tuesday morning and closing Thursday night. The business session of the city is rapidly assuming a gala appearance in preparation for the coming of the G.A.R. delegates. The street decorations are in place. Workmen are busy today planting poles and strung thousands of incandescent electric lights. A festoon of red, white and blue colors will be strung at each corner of the downtown section. The G.A.R. Committee moved into its headquarters today. Major Gates announced that all arrangements have been made for entertaining the two thousand delegates. Chief of Police Shaw today ordered his patrolmen that they must have the city "as tight as a pin" when the encampment begins. PEACE DOVE TAKES TO THE TAIL TIMBER.

Supervisors Refuse to Pay Fees to Horticultural Commissioners for Meeting When the Purpose of the Meeting Was to Lambast the Supervisors.—Will Appeal to Courts.

PORTERVILLE, April 9.—The peace dove, which almost hovered over the one-time troubled camps of the orange growers and the Board of Supervisors, was suddenly shot down when the county solons refused to pay bills which were tendered by Commissioner Schulz, Deputy Fowler and a number of inspectors, on one pretext or other, nearly every bill being pruned out of all resemblance to the original count and in the case of bills of Fowler and Schulz, refused to pay them outright. In accordance with the law, for attendance at regular meetings of the horticultural association, the board made the statement that calling the gathering "a meeting of the board" was a joke, as it was only called for the purpose of fighting with the supervisors over former accounts.

This action of the supervisors was immediately made known to the Executive Committee of the Citrus Chamber of Commerce, the association of orange grovers which was formed at Exeter, and which has had one business meeting, and the wires were kept busy this afternoon while arrangements were made for calling a special session of this new association, to consider the proper action to be taken.

That the action of the board in refusing to pay Schulz and Fowler for attending the horticultural meeting is in direct violation of the law, there can be no question. The law is mandatory and states that the board "shall pay the commissioner and his deputy, their regular per diem, together with necessary expenses, for attending regular meetings of the horticultural boards." The law also goes on to command the supervisors to provide a meeting place for the board over this latter phase of the law that the commissioners on the board looked horns previously and when Schulz brought forward this new law and demanded an office, there was anything but joy in the supervisors' office.

This afternoon a leading member of the Executive Committee of the Citrus Chamber stated that arrangements are to be made to take the question into the courts and secure a ruling. "The situation has become serious," he said, "as our inspectors refuse to work if they cannot be assured they are to receive pay for their services, and a single day without the proper safeguards and scale may find its way into the citrus district."

Cooking for German Peasants.

The German peasant knows no vegetable but cabbage, taken in the form of sauerkraut. He is unacquainted with scrambled eggs, and is so set in his ways that he will eat only food that he has known from childhood. To vary his diet and improve his wife's cooking, the government of the Duchy of Saxe-Meiningen has started traveling cooking schools, each of which stays in one village, provides a good dinner for the peasants, and in the evening, pupils bring their own favorite corn cup, sauer and plate, and meet supplies the rest and takes forty-eight cents a week from each person. It is expected that hereafter the piece of ground in the front and back of the peasant cottage will grow many kinds of vegetables, and that it can no longer be said of the German, what his neighbor said of the Dutchman, that he is a "cabbage and sauerkraut" man.

MUSIC AND STAGE.

something of a story back of the whole. Stuart Barnes, "Prince of Monarchs," will have a new line of "dope" to hand out; the six Banvardas, a sextette of the best aerialists known, will do seemingly impossible feats in midair, and Jarro, the droll trickster, will do equally impossible stunts on the stage. Jarro's "lemon trick" alone will be the price of the show. The Four Huntings, Lola Merrill and Frank Otto, Mike Bernard and Willie Weston, and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Barry, with many other pictures, will make up the remainder of the bill.

Florence Reed, after two weeks of waiting, will tonight make her first appearance with Lewis S. Stone and the Belasco company at the Belasco Theatre in Henry Arthur Jones' "Mrs. Dane's Defense."

Ferris Hartman and his company yesterday announced the fifteenth week in Walter De Leon's record-breaking musical comedy success "The Campus," and as has been the rule all during the run of this remarkable musical play there were no empty seats to be found in the Grand Opera-house.

The management announces this week as the last of this college play, as usual.

Following the run of "The Campus" the management announces "Fantasia," which will serve to introduce to Grand patrons the new tenor, Henry Balfour, and the new soprano, Miss Kathleen Williams, who will hereafter be seen in the Hartman productions, while it will also show the enlarged chorus of forty-two voices.

With Bobby Pandur and brother, Master David Schooler, Joe Whitehead and Flo Grierson and Charles A. Murray and Hae Hamilton, all acts working in position on any vaudeville bill, Sullivan & Condit will this afternoon open a bill of seven new acts at the Los Angeles Theatre.

Joe Whitehead and Flo Grierson, both ex-stars of musical comedy, will add to the new bill in their act a mixture of brilliant comedy creations and lively dances. They may be favorably remembered by reason of where they have played in this city. In his latest laughing sketch, "Jerry the Janitor."

Completing the new bill is John Hamilton, with his hilarious simulations of famous paintings and caricatures and the Six Gypsy Singers, and the new comedy motion picture.

ATHLETICS SHOULD WIN PENNANT AGAIN SAYS BASEBALL WRITER.

THERE will be no difference in the two leaders in the American League race the coming season. The Athletics should take the pennant as easily as they did last year and the Tigers should come in second with plenty of room to spare.

Instead of the Red Sox being contenders in the next race, however, they will have a lot of trouble keeping ahead of the tail-enders, for the changes in the Boston team have to make an interesting fight as it may be years before the team is able to make as interesting a fight as it made at the start of last summer and the season of 1909.

The White Sox and the Naps are going to be stronger than they were last year, and the Highlanders will have a lot of trouble in keeping ahead of these two teams. The youngsters on the White Sox and the Naps will need at least a season's work to groom them for championship honors, or else the New Yorkers would not be able to stand up so close to the front this year.

NO TROUBLE FOR ATHLETICS.

The Philadelphia men will have no trouble in keeping the lead all season if the champions go away with any kind of luck. Connie Mack has made no changes in his team that amount to anything, but he has a few young fellows that look a lot better this spring than they did last fall.

In the pitching department the Athletics will have the best staff in the league, and he will be a lot during the season. Krause, the youngster who did not show any form at all last summer, seems right again this year. The wise old leader has several other pitchers under cover on whom he will keep strings in case they show any kind of ability during the summer.

FIELDERS ARE UNCHANGED.

In the fielding end of the game the champions will line up about the same as they did last fall. Olinning will be back in center field, Derrick is up with Strunk or Hartel in left and Davis will be on first, Collins at second and Barry and Baker will take care of short and third base. Derrick is a capable utility man and Connie has several other men that he can fall back on in case of accident.

Thomas, Larry Livingston, will handle the backstopping work without help. Coombs again will be the star of the pitching staff and Bender will help along with Morgan and Plank and several youngsters, a combination that looks good enough to win without question.

The Tigers should make a little better record than last year. There was so much discord among the former champions that the team was broken up. Manager Jennings could not get the team to fighting as he formerly did and he had to get rid of some of the men that helped very much in winning pennants.

Tom Jones and Matty McIntyre have been disposed of, but Jennings feels that he has their places at first and in left field filled by men just as good or better.

Crawford and Cobb will be the big end of the outfield, and Davy Jones will likely get the berth in left field.

Mortimer may be shifted over to first and George H. Baker to second. Crawford may be brought in from the field to hold down first. The rest of the team will be the same as it was last year, but probably at second and Bush at short.

Summers, Donovan, Mullin and Wil-

left will be the main pitchers. Stanage, Schuchert and Casey will hold down the catching department.

JENNINGS FEELS CONFIDENT.

Jennings is more confident this spring than he was last. He really believes he can give the Athletics a real battle for first place.

The Highlanders are entitled to third place on their form last summer. If Hal Chase can keep the men going at the pace they went for Stallings they should give the Tigers a grand contest for second place. Chase has made one important change in his infield, by letting Austin and Laporte go to get rid of two men who were not willing to work well under him. Hartnell will make up for the loss of Austin, however, and he has plenty of young players to fill in at the holes. Ford will be the leading pitcher and Sweeney will be the chief catcher.

Chase, Gardner, Knight and Priest fill likely be in the field. Daniels, Cronin and Miller will likely fill the outfield places. Blair and Mitchell will be the other catchers, and Quinn, Vaughan, Picken and Caldwell will help in the pitching department.

WHITE SOX FOR FOURTH PLACE.

The White Sox should come next to the Highlanders in the race. Duffy has a team of players that will be much stronger than last year. With the best pitching staff in the league and an infield that will be strong to what it was last year, the team should start out at a rapid pace and keep the lead until the weak end of the team again this year, as it was last summer.

The Naps will be the leaders of the second division. Manager McGuire will have a lot of youngsters to handle and will be the chief catcher. But all of the new men look promising, but they will need seasoning before they will win a championship.

Boston will pitch close to Cleveland unless Donovan has more bad luck than he deserves. The Red Sox are a fast lot on the bases and will have batting strength enough to keep the team ahead of the Washington Senators.

McAker has strengthened the Senators, but he has not gained on the other teams in the league. Walter Johnson should get some able assistance from Tony Hughes in pitching, but the team has not gained much in batting strength.

An ordinance is before the Council of Chattanooga, Tenn., regulating the operation and construction of automobile garages and providing stringent rules for the handling of gasoline. The proposed regulations are so strict, in fact, that owners of garages have announced that if the ordinance would not be repealed they would have organized to fight the measure.

Avoid using brakes unless necessary. If tire expense runs into $200 calculations. When found necessary to use the brakes, do not force them on with all the strength you possess and compel your wheels to skid, causing the tire threads to slide along the ground. One such skid is apt to do more damage to the tires than 100 miles of ordinary traveling.

George Harding, the leader of the Harding boys, is surely going to lead a flash of speed in the Class "A" tournament if he can duplicate a few of those high games he has rolled in practically every driving activity. He has a pin and a pin boy and you couldn't drag him off with an automobile truck.

INSURRECTOS DESERTING

Rebels Flee as Federal Advance.

Victims of Recent Battle Are Buried Secretly at Night to Conceal Number.

Another Renegade American Elected to Fill Stanley Williams's Place.

Gen. Salinas Thwarted by Architects in Effort to Restore Stolen Stock.

BY JOHN M. STEELE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ALEXICO, April 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] But few details remain before the curtain will ring up on the last act and finale of the revolutionary drama which is being enacted just across the Mexican border.

With discord in the insurgent camp and the list of deserters from the rebel service constantly increasing, there is but little prospect of effective resistance to the prospective advance of the Federal troops, today reinforced by 125 men, making a total of 500 men in front of Mexicali. More reinforcements will arrive tomorrow or next day, including a complement of heavy artillery.

The reinforcing army is the twenty-fifth battalion and is said to be under the command of Gen. Vega. There is no longer any evidence of a desire on the part of the insurgents to go out looking for the Federal army. The dark-devil spirit of Stanley Williams has fled and his body, with the ten other insurgents killed in the action Saturday.
